

Where to buy CIGRE Green Books

CIGRE presents its expertise in unique reference books on electrical power networks. These books are self-consistent, have an handbook character covering the entire knowledge of the subject within power engineering. The books are created by CIGRE experts within their Study Committees and are recognized by the engineering community as the top reference books in their fields.

These books are available in different versions, at different prices whether you are a CIGRE Member or not. CIGRE / Springer collaboration allows us to offer several options. Click on the table below to get an access to the different versions:

Where to buy your CIGRE Green Books

click on the links (grey buttons) for direct access

Overhead Lines	Accessories for HV Extruded Cables	Utility Communication Networks and Services	Modelling of vibrations of Overhead Line Conductors	Substations	Switching Equipment	Flexible AC Transmission Systems	Electricity Supply Systems of the Future
Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy Edition 2014 on e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre	Printed copy e-cigre
Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Edition 2020 on Springer (Feb. 2021) Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer	Electronic copy or package electronic + printed copy Springer

Individual CIGRE Members : Contact us to get a 40% discount coupon code for the digital version or package (electronic+printed copy) of the Green Books on Springer.com.

Note: This discount is not available for Collective Members.