

e-cigre

on-line library and bookstore

Reference: 107

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Power system communication in the high speed environment.

The brochure focuses on the present high speed transport and access technologies being considered and employed by various utilities. Special attention is given to the operational services, their requirements and how they can be realised on top of these technologies. It is noted that the technologies have not reached full maturity, that the standardisation process is still incomplete and that the employment of these technologies needs special attention.

More Informations :

File Size:8,3 MB Pages NB:114 Study Committee : 35 (now D2) WG (TF):WG 35.07 Year:1997
