

Reference: 398

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Third-Party Damage to Underground and Submarine Cables

Most cable failures are caused by third parties. To reduce the main threats to underground and submarine cables, the TB proposes to define a Cable Protection Index, which is a relative number indicating which cables are most exposed to third-party damage and gives guidelines for setting up a risk reduction process.

More Informations :

File Size:3,2 MB Pages NB:118 Study Committee : B1 WG (TF):WG B1.21 Year:2009
