

---

Reference: 402

---

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

High Impedance Faults

High Impedance Faults (HIFs) have been a challenge for protection engineers for a long time. The TB presents the current experiences, worldwide, and the methods used or proposed for detecting HIFs. It assesses their state of progress and their degree of implementation, in order to guide the users in the optimization of the protection schemes.

---

More Informations :

File Size:645,8 KB Pages NB:40 Study Committee : B5 WG (TF):WG B5.94 Year:2009

---