

e-cigre

on-line library and bookstore

Reference: 461

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Telecommunication Service Provisioning and Delivery in the Electrical Power Utility

Abstracts

Electrical Power Utilities require stable, predictable, secure and reliable communication services for their operational applications. The TB reports on the present state and near future perspectives of operations-related communication services, providing guidelines on quality constraints, their specification, service provisioning and delivery organizations, and the way the services and their underlying network infrastructure can be planned, deployed and managed.

More Informations :

File Size:4,2 MB Pages NB:188 Study Committee : D2 WG (TF):WG D2.26 Year:2011
