

---

Reference: 462

---

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Obtaining Value from On-Line Substation Condition Monitoring

The TB provides a broad overall view of substation equipment condition monitoring. It investigates the technology currently available and analyses the factors that need to be considered to determine the degree of application which will provide the optimum Value solution, taking into account the improved reliability and availability of modern HV substation equipment.

---

More Informations :

File Size:6,8 MB Pages NB:256 Study Committee : B3 Year:2011

---