

---

Reference: 645

---

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Meteorological data for assessing climatic loads on overhead lines

The report provides updated information relevant for assessing climatic loads on electric overhead lines with respect to atmospheric icing and extreme winds are given in the report, including ongoing field studies. A particular achievement is to present new methods and models for analyzing of atmospheric icing for case studies and for mapping of extreme loadings for design purposes.

---

More Informations :

File Size:2,1 MB Pages NB:42 Study Committee : B2 WG (TF):WG B2.28 Year:2015

---