

Reference: 682

Type:

Technical Brochures

Title:

Survey on hydro generator instrumentation and monitoring

The increased demand for electric energy is requiring higher availability of power plants. To enable various power producing entities to produce a more reliable and cost effective product at higher levels of safety, a more stringent and consistent condition monitoring program is required. WG A1.40 was formed to produce a Technical Brochure (TB) which would identify the current instrumentation and monitoring systems installed on various components of different types of hydro generators around the world.

More Informations :

File Size:2,7 MB Pages NB:88 Study Committee : A1 WG (TF):WG A1.40 Year:2017
